Jean Jullien's Low Glow takes an illustrated journey into the dark recesses of the modern condition. With the distinct style that has made Jullien's illustrations world-famous, this witty and humorous collection highlights the low-lights of the world as we know it.

Sit down. Relax. Take a deep breath and look deep into recesses of the modern condition.

Jean Jullien is a French graphic artist currently living in London. He comes from Nantes and did a graphic design degree in Quimper before coming to London. He graduated from Central Saint Martins in 2008 and from the Royal College of Art in 2010. He works closely with the musician The Coward. His practice ranges from illustration to photography, video, costumes, installations, books, posters and clothing to create a coherent yet eclectic body of work.
