On the occasion of its 25th anniversary, Ivorypress published this three-volume chronicle of the people, images, and works of art that have shaped it since 1996. 'Words' is a selection of sixty essays, poems, and narrative texts previously only available to a small audience. 'Books' explores the cultural underpinnings of their Artists' Books Collection through 16 richly-illustrated entries. 'Stories' presents the voices of some of the leading figures in the field of artists' books and visual arts. The variety of oral histories, archival documents, pictorial records, and texts form a handsomely-bound research tool for current and future generations of creators, historians and students.
